

ConConquer: Vanquishing Writers' Conference Mistakes Master Class

September 21, 2024

You know writers' conferences and workshops can help, but which ones, and what should you do there? Invest one full day in your future as an author with Texas High Plains Writers and workshop leaders Jodi Thompson, publisher and guide, and TwylaBeth Lambert, editor, and become a ConConqueror.

In this interactive workshop, you will:

- Learn strategies to make the most of opportunities for networking, learning, and career development
- Develop your own doable plan of action for choosing, attending, and winning with your writers' conference goals
- Receive a professional author head shot for your social media and promotional opportunities
- Walk away with a printed workbook and two e-books to map your personal path to literary conquest

We'll enjoy a light breakfast and a catered buffet lunch, so you can begin networking right away.

Texas High Plains Writers is hosting this one day workshop in place of the regularly scheduled bi-monthly meeting.

WORKSHOP DETAILS:

When: September 21, 2024 from 9 AM to 5:30 PM

Where: Amarillo Area Foundation at 919 S. Polk, Amarillo, TX 79101

Headshot by a professional photographer includes a single sitting with no setting/wardrobe changes

REGISTER NOW!

But you don't have to wait until September 21! Get a head start with a BONUS ZOOM SESSION, included with registration, where you'll learn how to:

CREATE YOUR AUTHOR MISSION STATEMENT

When: September 10, 2024 at 7:00 p.m. (central)

Where: Online through Zoom

Registered attendees will receive meeting link and details via email